

Hello, my wonderful drama students!!! This week, we're going to be practicing all the skills we learned this year, by creating reality TV shows. Enjoy! I miss you all, stay safe and stay home ☺

Ms. Morrison

Creating a reality TV show :

You will be coming up with an idea for a reality TV show. In this activity, you will need to decide what types of characters would best fit your show, then film yourself "auditioning" for the show as one of those characters.

Information for parents

About the activity:

Your child will practice:

- Creating characters in a one-minute film sequence.
- Creating a monologue.

You could:

- Ask your child to present his/her scene to you.
- Film his/her scene so that he/she can then share them with his/her friends.

Instructions for students :

Warmup task:

write down as many examples of Reality TV they can think of.

First task:

create an idea for a new reality TV show, entitled Little Sister. You need to think of what happens in the show and who the target audience is.

Second task:

Create a character who you think might make a good addition to your cast.

Write a short monologue for your character's audition video for your TV show.

Third task: Take on the role of your character and film yourself auditioning for the TV show.

You can do this activity over as many times as you like, with as many different texts and characters as you can come up with; it's all about having fun!
